SHARING QR CODES

Sending a QR Code invitation to someone who has followed you and liked several of your photos asking them if they're interested to join Amway

Send a mass message to several people you do not know who have not followed your account or liked your pictures offering them more information about the Amway opportunity

You can only send QR Code to people with whom you have an existing relationship and that you should not spam people. Refer to the Digital Communication Standards (DCS) or Social Selling Workshop (SSW) for more information.
